

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER—APRIL 23, 2023

YOUR HEALTH

As cold and flu season approaches, to ensure the health of the entire community, parishioners are encouraged to stay home from Mass and parish functions if they are experiencing symptoms of the flu virus, colds, etc. Respect and concern for the common good takes precedence.

Thank you for your cooperation! To minimize risks please use the hand sanitizers that are located at each entrance!

Tending the Garden of the Imagination:

Why Our Souls Depend on What We See, Read, and Watch.”

You are invited to a free dessert night and talk
by Dr. Celene Sidloski,
Founder of Rebuilding Catholic Culture
on Wednesday, April 26 at 7 pm
at the Parish Hall (doors open at 6:30 pm).

Responding to an age saturated by images, this exciting and entertaining talk poses and answers timely questions:

What exactly is the imagination?
What is it for?
How can its use or misuse help or harm us?

Drawing on personal recollections, philosophy, and common literary examples, this talk will help the audience understand how a properly-directed imagination elevates the soul and anchors the mind to truth—and why it might be a good idea to smash your technology.

ATTENTION ALL PARISHIONERS Reception of Holy Communion

It has come to my attention that some people, receiving on the hand, carry the Sacred Host back to their seats. This is forbidden. Please be sure to consume Jesus, truly present in the Sacred Host, right after you receive Him. You must consume the Host in the front of the church, right after receiving. There are people who wish to steal consecrated Hosts for the sake of rituals. If you see anyone walking away without having consumed the Sacred Host please alert one of the Ushers, the Sacristan—Anthony or Fr. Slawek.
