The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul Holy Spirit Conference

We cannot better assure our eternal happiness than by living and dying in the service of the poor, in the arms of Providence, and with a genuine renouncement of ourselves in order to follow Jesus Christ.

DAY OF REFLECTION FOR WOMEN – No matter what stage of life you are at, God has a beautiful plan for you! It is never too late to begin. “For I know the plans I have for you, plans for welfare not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.” (Jeremiah 29:11)

This interactive and reflective workshop will help you gain insights about some possible options to explore for work, volunteering, vocational discernment, a side gig, or hobby that interests you. By reflecting on areas of giftedness, passion, and mission, you will begin to discern practical ways to direct your yes and no towards activities and pursuits that align with God’s grace already active in your life. We will identify common themes that bring you joy, meaning and well-being, and you will start to see an intersection between what you are good at, what you enjoy, and what others need.

God’s plan for your life is both satisfying and sanctifying. As you begin this journey of excavation in living God’s plan for your life today, you will find more hope and happiness and have a greater impact where you are called to serve. Join us and let’s explore together how you can start living for others doing what you love and are equipped for. Give yourself permission to be who God created you to be.
